

NATIONAL PATRIOTIC
SONG
CANADA FOR EVER

"You're the Pride of All"

WORDS BY
HENRY E. CROSS
MUSIC BY
ARTHUR J. AINSLEY

PUBLISHED BY
HENRY E. CROSS
GRANDVIEW, VANCOUVER, B.C.

CANADIAN AND INTERNATIONAL COPYRIGHT, 1915

THE CANADIAN FOR EVER

THE CANADIAN FOR EVER

THE CANADIAN FOR EVER

THE CANADIAN FOR EVER

"CANADA FOR EVER"

We have heard the bugle calling
At the early break of day,
When the shades of night were falling
Heard its echoes die away,
Watched them with their drill pursuing,
And we've revelled in the noise,
For we knew what they were doing
With our brave Canadian boys.

CHORUS:

"Canada for ever," we're proud of your display;
Valiantly your heroes fought, fought and saved the day.
From your own big land, so strong and grand,
You answered the Empire's call;
"Canada for ever," you're the pride of all.

They received a royal greeting
In the dear old Motherland,
With the "Sons of Empire" meeting
In one army vast and grand.
In its onward march to glory,
In its sorrows and its joys,
You can read today the story
Of our brave Canadian boys.

With an eager dash and fearless
That will dazzle any foe,
In the trenches damp and cheerless
Where the fighting pace is slow,
They have fought the fight expected
With a glorious equipoise,
And a deathless fame reflected
On our brave Canadian boys.

'Tis no idle vain endeavour
But a duty that will pay,
And their deeds shall live for ever,
They responded to "The Day";
Out to wreck a Fiend's ambition,
And to burn his hellish toys,
Putting Europe in condition
Are our brave Canadian boys.

Words by HENRY E. CROSS

"Canada for Ever"

(You're the Pride of All)

Words by
HENRY E. CROSS

Music by
ARTHUR J. AINSLEY

Con Spirito

Voice

Piano

1. We have heard the bu - gle call - ing At the ear - ly break of day.
2. They re - ceived a roy - al greet - ing In the dear old Mo - ther land.

When the shades of night were fall - ing, Heard its ec - ho es die a - way,
With the "Sons of Em - pire" meet - ing, In one ar - my vast and grand

Copyright Canada MCMV. by Ainsley & Cross Co.
International Copyright Secured.

Watch them with their drill pur - su - ing, And we're - vel'd in the noise,
In its on - ward march to glo - ry, In its sor - rows and its joys,

For we knew what they were do - ing, With our brave Ca - na - dian Boys.
You can read to - day the sto - ry, Of our brave Ca - na - dian Boys.

CHORUS.

"Ca - na - da for Ev - er" We're proud of your display, Val - iant - ly your he - roes fought,

fought and saved the day, From your own big land, so strong and grand, You an - swer The Em - pire's call

"Ca - na - da for Ev - er" You 're the pride of all.

D.S.

